

President's Corner

Greetings Friends and Neighbors:

I hope everyone had a safe and wonderful holiday! I would like to take this opportunity to remind everyone that if you need to address a concern or problem please contact me directly at presidentfairwayoakshoa@gmail.com or our management company, Coastal Management Services at 727-859-9734 or manger3coastalhoamgt@gmail.com. Several residents have been posting requests for actions and complaints on the NextDoor website. This sight is not monitored by the Board so a response or action to your concerns and messages may be delayed. The NextDoor website is for social messaging for our residents.

Just a quick reminder that our next HOA meeting will be Tuesday, August 8th at 7pm at the Beacon Woods East Recreation Association Clubhouse. I hope to see all of you there!

Until then,

Bonnie Cabe

Tampa Bay Idol Audition to be held in Wesley Chapel

~~Winners to sing for American Idol producers during bus tour~~

WESLEY CHAPEL, FL --- The next musical superstar could be right here in the Bay Area! Tampa Bay Idol will give local singers a special opportunity.

Winners of Tampa Bay Idol will receive a "Front of the Line" Ticket to audition for American Idol producers during their bus tour stop in Orlando on August 17, 2017. This guarantees them a chance to be seen by producers without waiting in the long lines.

ABC Action News and Tampa Bay's Morning Blend will open audition sign-ups on August 5, 2017 at ABCActionNews.com/Idol. The first 400 registrants will have the chance to audition. Then, a one-day audition will be held for the registrants to perform a short acapella song before a panel of local celebrity judges on Saturday, August 12, 2017 at Florida Hospital Center Ice in Wesley Chapel.

WFTS-TV thanks Pasco County Board of County Commissioners for helping make Tampa Bay Idol a reality for local singers.

"I am excited that Tampa Bay Idol has chosen Pasco County and the ice arena as a venue to hold the tryouts," said Pasco County Commissioner Kathryn Starkey. "This facility is a great addition to Pasco County and we are looking forward to having individuals from our County and the Tampa Bay region show off their talent on a national level." "Pasco County has so much talent and I couldn't be happier Tampa Bay Idol is holding their next tryout in Pasco County," said Pasco County Chairman, Mike Moore. "The ice arena where this will be held is a wonderful facility and we look forward to seeing the talent and the arena featured for the Tampa Bay Idol."

"We're happy to be giving Bay Area singers a unique opportunity – a chance to audition directly in front of producers from one of America's most popular TV shows, American Idol," said Nick Nicholson, Vice President and General Manager of WFTS. "That's something no other television station in Tampa can offer."

To audition, local singers must meet all eligibility requirements and download the official rules & local registration which can only be found at ABCActionNews.com/Idol.

Weeki Wachee Springs

Visitors can swim at Buccaneer Bay, see the animal/reptile show, or take a riverboat ride down the Weeki Wachee River and into Old Florida. A family of peacocks roams the grounds. Turtles, fish, manatees, otters and even an occasional alligator swim in the spring with the mermaids, amusing both children and adults. Visitors can pose with mermaids. Children can attend the summer Mermaid Camp and fulfill their dreams of becoming a little mermaid or a merman.

In 2008, Weeki Wachee Springs proudly became one of Florida's newest state parks! Weeki Wachee Springs — The City of Live Mermaids — is more than just mermaids; it's a truly original piece of Florida's rich heritage.

Cost: Park admission: Adults, $13.00; ages 6-10, $8.00; age five and under, free
